

PRIVACY POLICY

1 Information Collected

The Licenser is committed to respecting your privacy. The only data to be collected by the Licenser from the Licensee is the information the Licensee provides via the form filled out to access the Software (your “Information”).

2 Purpose of Data Collection

The contact information provided will be used solely for communications regarding the Software, new product and service offerings of the Licenser, notices under the License, and other important notices. Other information provided via the form is used for market research and product development.

3 No Additional Data Collection

The Licenser does not collect, track, or store any other personal or sensitive information, including but not limited to financial data, location data, or usage data from the Software. Installation of the Software on your computer system(s) does not give the Licenser access to your computer system and the Software does not transmit information outside your computer system. Any result files, information or logs generated by the Software are stored locally on your computer system or at a location you specify. For avoidance of doubt, the Software does not provide Licenser any access to the dataset you use for training the Software, any information or architecture of the model being trained, or any software related to the pipeline you use for training. In response to a request from Licensee, Licenser may assist Licensee’s security team in reviewing the Software compliance with Licensee’s software compliance requirements. Such assistance may include, for example, reviewing the inputs and outputs of the Software.

4 Data Security

The Software consists of Cython compiled Python code; exclusively utilizes the 'torch', 'torchvision', 'matplotlib', 'pandas', 'rsa', and 'pyyaml' repositories; and does not include “custom code” that might maliciously harm or interfere with your computer system. The Licenser takes reasonable steps to ensure that your Information is stored securely and protected from unauthorized access, disclosure, or misuse. The Licenser may store your data on servers provided by third party hosting vendors with whom we have contracted. The Licenser will not sell, rent, or share your Information with third parties, except as required by law or with your express consent.

5 Data Retention

Your Information will be retained only as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy or as required by law.

6 Your Rights

You have the right to request access to, correction of, or deletion of your Information at any time. To exercise these rights, please email Rorry@perforatedai.com.

7 Children Under Thirteen

The Licenser does not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under the age of thirteen. If you are under the age of thirteen, you must obtain permission to use the Website and the Software from your parent or guardian.

8 Links

This Website and Software may contain links to other sites. Please be aware that the Licenser is not responsible for the content or privacy practices of such other sites.
